

Corporate Sponsorship

Yuma's Next Generation Leadership Council directly benefits businesses and organizations in the Greater Yuma Region through a network that assists in the attraction and retention of young professional employees. Businesses in the area recognize that an active, energetic community with peer connections is a more fun and exciting place for young professionals to live and work. NexGen fosters the development of this community.

The following levels of Sponsorship have been established to allow local businesses the opportunity to aid this effort...
